Why Gaza Matters in Australia

PRODUCTION SCRIPT — CHAPTER 1: THE VOTE AUSTRALIA CAST FIRST

Segments S05-S13 · about 2 min 10 s · Voices: Grok TTS Atlas + Ara · Media budget: $0

Independent, non-partisan documentary · Research cut-off 9 October 2026

Editorial stance: we do not take a side

This documentary does not take a side in the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. Its question is narrower: how has this conflict affected Australia and Australians? It reports what happened, shows the evidence on screen as each claim is spoken, and gives every side's position in its own terms, at equal weight. It does not tell viewers what to conclude.

How neutrality is built into every frame

- Equal treatment. Whenever one community's experience or position is shown, the other's is shown at the same size, for the same time, in the same design, with the same music level. In this chapter: S10 (two memories of 1948) and S12 (two population figures).
- One neutral voice for both sides. Ara ("the Record") reads every official position and every "case for" and "case against" in an identical tone, so neither side sounds favoured.
- Attributed, not asserted. Contested facts are attributed to their source on screen ("according to...", "supporters say...", "critics argue..."). The narrator never states a contested claim as fact.
- Neutral language. Narration uses "Israel", "Palestinians", "Hamas", "the war in Gaza". Loaded labels from either side are not used in the narrator's voice.
- Neutral design. No national flag colours are used as design colours. Flags appear only where they're part of a real photograph.
- No generated likenesses or symbols. No AI-generated, drawn or altered image of any real person, and no AI-generated religious dress, symbols or flags.
- No graphic content. No images of violence or casualties from any side.

Disclaimer — on-screen card (after the title in S04) and the top of the video description

This is an independent documentary made for educational and informational purposes. It does not take a side in the Israeli-Palestinian conflict, and it is not affiliated with, endorsed by, or paid for by any government, political party, advocacy group or community organisation. Statements of fact come from parliamentary records, court judgments, government statements, United Nations documents and official reports, shown on screen and listed in the description. The positions of different sides are summarised and attributed to them, and given equal weight. Casualty figures are attributed to their sources. Some scenes are AI-generated reconstructions, and the narration voices are AI-generated. No real person has been AI-generated or altered. If you believe anything is inaccurate or unfair to any side, contact [your email] and we will review it promptly.

On screen: show the card for 4 seconds over a dark background, no narration, with the MUS12 motif tail. Text in Source Serif 4, 28 pt, off-white #F2EEE6. If it feels long on screen, use the short version below and keep the full version in the description.

Short on-screen version: An independent, non-partisan documentary. We don't take sides. Facts are sourced on screen; each side's view is attributed and given equal weight. Some scenes and the narration voices are AI-generated.

Chapter 1 at a glance

Item	Detail
Segments	S05-S13 (9 segments)
Runtime	About 2 min 10 s (1:17-3:27 in the full film)
Voices	Grok TTS. Atlas (storyteller): S06-S11, S13. Ara ("the Record"): S05, S12
Mood arc	Wonder → gravity → empathy (quiet moment, S10) → warmth → a forward hook into Chapter 2
Retention job	Surprise viewers with a fact almost nobody knows (Australia voted first in 1947), plant the "two memories" idea the whole film relies on, and end on a hook ("wired into the war...")
Budget	$0. Every asset is free (see the asset section)
Format	16:9, 1920×1080, 30 fps

Rules for this chapter

- Golden rule: something on screen reacts to the voice every 1-2 seconds. The only exception is S10, a quiet moment: slow motion only, no shakes, no comic effects.
- Balance: S10 shows both 1948 memories at equal size, for equal time, with labels fading in at the same moment. S12 shows both population figures in identical design.
- No AI likeness of real people. Evatt appears only in his real photo (crop, scale, grade and position only).
- AI B-roll style anchor (add to every AI prompt): Cinematic documentary B-roll, 16:9, natural colour, gentle film grain, shallow depth of field, slow camera movement, realistic, no text, no logos, no recognisable real people, faces not visible.
- Never generate: real people, religious dress or symbols, flags, weapons, violence, injured people, or military insignia.
- Captions and credits: every real photo has a small caption (place, year) and a credit in the corner.

Design tokens

Swatch	Token	Use
	Navy #0E1A2B	Background, chapter card
	Paper #F2EEE6	Evidence cards, text on dark
	Amber #E8A33D	The Thread, highlights, circles
	Grey #8A8A8A	Secondary labels
	Map land #22324A	All maps
	Map sea #0A1422	All maps

- Fonts (free, OFL): Source Serif 4 for the chapter card, quotes and evidence cards; Inter for labels and numbers; IBM Plex Mono for the split-flap date board.
- Archival grade: warm sepia, light grain, soft vignette. Modern images slightly desaturated and cool.
- Motion: ease-out entrances of 200-350 ms; map lines draw over 1.5-2 s with ease-in-out.
- Never use national flag colours as design colours.

Sound

- Narration –14 LUFS integrated.
- Sound effects about 12 dB under the narration.
- Music about 20 dB under the narration, ducking under speech.
- Crossfade music over 2-4 seconds, on emotion changes rather than on cuts.

- Leave 0.4 s of air at every handover between Atlas and Ara.

Image moves used in this chapter

Code	Move	Sound
DROP	White-bordered photo falls onto the dark desk with a slight tilt and shadow	Shutter click (SFX12)
PAN	Slow push or pan, foreground separated for 2.5D depth	Low whoosh (SFX05)
STACK	2–4 photos land on top of each other, each slightly rotated	A click per photo
ZOOM	Camera dives into a document to one line; a highlighter swipes across it	Page turn (SFX18)
CIRCLE	A hand-drawn amber circle draws around a word	Marker squeak (SFX20)
CALLOUT	A label or arrow pops out	Pop
SPLIT	Two images slide in from opposite sides and lock together at equal size	Whoosh + click
PIN	Image or card snaps onto the map or the evidence board	Thunk (SFX21)

The recurring devices (introduced here, used all film)

- Split-flap date board (lower-left, IBM Plex Mono) announces every date jump: NOV 1947 (S05), OCT 1917 (S08).
- The evidence board: a dark board where each chapter pins a card tied to the previous one with amber string. Its first two cards are pinned in this chapter: TWO MEMORIES (S10) and 1947 VOTE (S13).
- The amber Thread (MAP01): a dark globe with a glowing line from Sydney to Gaza. Node 1, "1947 VOTE", lights in S13.

Shot-by-shot script

Each segment shows the narration, the visual track in play order (HOLD = picture holds with no narration), the image sequence, and the animation cues. Each cue starts on the first word of its trigger.

S05 Ara · clear, formal, like reading the record

≈ 1:17

"November, nineteen forty-seven. The United Nations General Assembly, New York."

Visual track

1. Chapter card (navy, film grain): CHAPTER 1 — THE VOTE AUSTRALIA CAST FIRST. MUS12 short motif → MUS02 strings. SFX07 projector starts.
2. FT05 (UN 1947 footage) if cleared; otherwise PH26 with PAN and projector flicker overlay.
3. HOLD 1.0s.

Image sequence

- PH26 — PAN with film-flicker overlay. Caption: UN General Assembly, 1947. Credit.

Animation cues

Trigger word	Animation	Sound
"November"	Split-flap board flips to NOV 1947	SFX06
"New York"	Small locator dot on a world inset	SFX05

Assets: FT05 (permission/terms), PH26, MUS12, MUS02, SFX07, SFX06

S06 Atlas · curious, building

"The new United Nations is deciding the future of Palestine. And chairing the committee at the centre of it is an Australian. · Foreign Minister H.V. Evatt, known as Doc."

Visual track

1. PH01 Evatt portrait — DROP, then PAN with parallax. Lower third: H.V. "Doc" Evatt — Australian Foreign Minister.
2. HOLD 0.5s.

Image sequence

- PH01 — DROP onto the desk, then PAN. CALLOUT label 'Chair, UN Ad Hoc Committee on Palestine'.

Animation cues

Trigger word	Animation	Sound
"an Australian"	Kinetic word 'AUSTRALIAN' in amber	SFX06
"Doc"	Label pops onto the portrait	Pop

Assets: PH01, MUS02, SFX12

S07 Atlas · quiet surprise

≈ 1:37

"When the vote is called on a plan to divide the land into a Jewish state and an Arab state, · the first country to vote yes · is Australia."

Visual track

1. DOC02 voting record — ZOOM to the roll call; highlighter swipes 'Australia' in sync with the word.

2. MAP03: the 1947 partition plan draws in neutral sand and slate, Jerusalem marked as an international zone.
3. HOLD 1.5s after "Australia" — MUS02 swells slightly.

Image sequence

- DOC01 — ZOOM to the title line of Resolution 181 (II). DOC02 — ZOOM + CIRCLE on 'Australia'.

Animation cues

Trigger word	Animation	Sound
"divide the land"	Map splits into two zones, Jerusalem ring appears	SFX05
"first country"	Roll-call list scrolls fast, then stops	SFX06 ticks

S10 Atlas · soft, even, equal weight to both halves — QUIET MOMENT

≈ 2:23

"For many Jewish people, the nineteen forty-seven vote is remembered as a rescue, after the Holocaust. · For Palestinians, what followed in nineteen forty-eight is remembered as the Nakba. The catastrophe. When more than seven hundred thousand people fled or were expelled from their homes. · The same event. Remembered in two opposite ways. · Remember that idea. It explains almost everything in this film."

Visual track

1. QUIET MOMENT: slow motion only, no shakes, no comic effects. MUS02 crossfades to MUS06 soft piano over 3s.
2. SPLIT: PH03 (1948 celebrations) left, PH04 (1948 refugees) right. Equal size, equal time, labels fade in at the same moment.
3. On "The same event": the split line glows amber. HOLD 2.0s.
4. On "Remember that idea": kinetic text TWO MEMORIES writes on and PINs to the evidence board (first card).

Image sequence

- PH03 + PH04 — SPLIT, both PAN slowly at identical speed.

Animation cues

Trigger word	Animation	Sound
"rescue"	Left label: 1948 — INDEPENDENCE	—
"Nakba"	Right label: 1948 — THE NAKBA	—
"seven hundred thousand"	Number rolls on the right half, small, with source tag	SFX06 soft
"Remember that idea"	Card 'TWO MEMORIES' pins to the evidence board	SFX21 thunk

Assets: MUS02 (crossfade out), PH03, PH04, MUS06, SFX21

S11 Atlas · warm

≈ 2:52

"Both memories later sailed to Australia. · Melbourne became home to one of the largest communities of Holocaust survivors, per person, anywhere outside Israel. Palestinian, Lebanese and other Arab families settled in Sydney's south-west."

Visual track

1. MUS06 crossfades back to MUS02 (warm variation) over 3s.
2. AI05 suitcases on a ship deck → PH05 Station Pier migrants → PH06 1970s arrivals.
3. MAP04: two soft flow lines land in Melbourne and Sydney.

Image sequence

S12

Ara · clear, factual

≈ 3:05

"Today, Australia is home to more than one hundred thousand Jewish Australians, and more than eight hundred thousand Muslim Australians."

Visual track

1. Population graphic: two identical number rolls side by side, same size and design. Source tag: ABS Census (DOC10).

Animation cues

Trigger word	Animation	Sound
"one hundred thousand"	Left number rolls 0 → 100,000+	SFX06 ticks
"eight hundred thousand"	Right number rolls 0 → 800,000+	SFX06 ticks

Assets: DOC10, MUS02

S13

Atlas · closing a chapter, hinting forward

≈ 3:13

"For many of them, this isn't a foreign conflict. It's family. · Australia didn't just watch this conflict begin. It helped start the clock. · And decades later, it would be wired into the war in a way most Australians have never heard of."

Visual track

1. MAP01 globe: node 1 '1947 VOTE' lights on the Thread.
2. Evidence board: card 2 '1947 VOTE' pins and the string ties it to 'TWO MEMORIES'.
3. On "wired into the war": sound bridge — SFX10 factory hum rises; MUS02 out, MUS03 pulse in.

Animation cues

Trigger word	Animation	Sound
"start the clock"	A clock hand ticks once over the globe	SFX06
"never heard of"	Node 1 glows; card pins	SFX21 thunk + SFX10 hum rising

Check before export

- DOC02: confirm in the UN record that Australia was the first country to vote yes in the roll call. This is the chapter's central claim; if the record shows otherwise, change S07 and the chapter title before you build.
- DOC01: confirm the resolution date and exact title.
- S08: confirm the Beersheba date against the Australian War Memorial.
- DOC10: confirm both population figures against the latest ABS census.
- Credits: copy the licence and credit line for every photo from its source page.
- FT05: confirm the UN Audiovisual Library's terms for online channels, or use the fallback.
- Balance check: in S10, time both halves of the split. They must be on screen for the same duration with labels appearing together.

Pilot review questions (answer honestly before building the rest)

- Does S05–S07 make you want to know what comes next?
- Do Atlas and Ara sound like they belong in the same film?
- Do the free archival photos look rich enough, or thin?
- Does anything on screen stay still for longer than 2 seconds outside S10?
- Would a viewer from either community feel S10 treated their history fairly?
